an on-going process and feedback provided by Hon'ble MP& and C&AG is taken into account for improvement in systems and procedures.

(c) Instructions are issued from time to time to all Heads of Departments to follow the provisions under GFRs and other relevant Government instructions issued from time to time on purchase of stationery and other items. General principles relating to expenditure and payment of money as mentioned in the GFRs are required to be followed by spending offices. Besides, systems of pre-check of bills, internal audit and statutory audit are in vogue to ensure that public money is not squandered.

Pendency of Utilisation Certificate

340. SHRI MOTIUR RAHMAN: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether more than 37000 Utilisation Certificates (UCs) are pending upto March 31, 2006 from several Ministries and key departments of Government with a financial implication of more than Rs. 14500 crore;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) the reasons for releasing funds to these Ministries and some statutory bodies and NGOs without satisfying itself about utilization of the grants; and

(d) the measures taken by Government to check misuse of public money by these Ministries, statutory bodies and NGOs?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) As per report No.3 of 2007 of Comptroller and Auditor General of India, a total of 37428 Utilisation Certificates were pending upto March 31, 2006 involving a total amount of Rs. 14595.32 crores. Details of outstanding utilisation certificates are given in the enclosed Statement-I {See below).

(c) As per Rule 20 of Delegation of Financial Power Rules, full powers have been delegated to Department of Central Government for sanctioning grants-in-aid provided such grants-in-aid are in accordance with the rules or principles prescribed with the previous consent of the Ministry of Finance. Since the grants are released by the respective Ministries/Departments to the statutory bodies/NGOs, these Ministries/Departments are to ensure that the provisions of General Financial Rules are complied with, before releasing grants to such organisations/statutory bodies. Ministry of Finance has, however, been advising the administrative Ministries/ Departments from time to time, to ensure compliance and satisfy themselves about utilisation of the grants.

(d) As per provision of Rule 212 (1) of General Financial Rules 2005, institutes/ organisations receiving non-recurring grants are required to submit utilisation certificates within 12 months of the closure of the financial year, and Ministries/ Departments are expected to scrutinize the receipt of these certificates. Where such certificate is not received from the grantee organisation within the prescribed period, the Ministry is at liberty to blacklist such institutions or organisations from any future grant from the Government. Also, as per Rule 212(1) in respect of the recurring grants, Ministry/Department concerned should release any amount sanctioned for the subsequent financial year only after Utilisation Certificates on provisional basis in respect of grants of the preceding financial year is submitted. Release of grants-in-aid in excess of 75% of the total amount sanctioned for the subsequent financial year shall be done only after the Utilisation Certificate and the Annual Audited statement relating to grants-in-aid released in the preceding year are submitted to the satisfaction of the Ministry/Department concerned. Ministry of Finance have also been advising the administrative Ministries/Departments from time to time to ensure compliance.

There are some other provisions in General Financial Rules to check misuse of public money. Rule 211 provides that the accounts of all grantee institutions shall be open to inspection by the sanctioning authority, and audit both by the Comptroller & Auditor General of India and internal audit by the Principal Accounts Office of the concerned Ministry, whenever the institution or organisation is called upon to do so.

Rule 212(2) of General Financial Rules provide for the inclusion of details of grants released to such bodies in the Annual Reports of Ministries/Departments, and for the laying of the annual reports and accounts of private and voluntary organisations in Parliament, depending on the quantum of grant received from Government.

Rule 212(3) of these Rules further provides for submission of Achievement-cum-Performance Reports to be submitted by grantee institutions or organisations soon after the end of the financial year.
